Mr. Vaughn Shoemaker

Dear Mr. Shoemaker:

I was highly amused when I saw your cartoon "Now, to Peking!" on 9 June 1960 in the Chicago Daily News, and I hoped that if it were not too much trouble and it were still available, you might let me have the original to add to a small collection that I have.

Pete Lisagor, the Washington Bureau Chief of the News, got busy and he and Basil Walters went to work to see if you would let me have the original. I am now more than grateful because of the extra effort you made in having a photostat of the original made for me. I am sorry to have put you to as much trouble since you had to borrow the original from one of your neighbors.

I am delighted with the photostat and with your best wishes and your covering letter.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Messrs. Lisagor and Walters so that they will know of my deep appreciation of their efforts and of your kind action.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
